

MEET THE SPEAKERS/PANELISTS

Wally Meyer - University of Kansas

Wally helps startups achieve their marketplace potential. As founder and director of the Entrepreneurship Program at the University of Kansas and originator of the Startup School @ KU, Wally mentors dozens of faculty and student startups annually. His prior experience in starting and growing four of his own companies — plus senior management for Gillette, Nabisco and Sprint — provide applicable experiences to help SHARPhub program participants successfully commercialize their inventions.